Benjamin Musheer Bilal is a gifted imam, instructor, linguist, playwright, screenplay writer, author, counselor and motivational speaker who currently resides in the Raleigh, NC area. Born in New York City's Mount Sinai Hospital on July 16th, 1959, Benjamin was raised as a member of the Hebrew faith until he was 13 years old. At 13, he was exposed to the doctrine of Elijah Muhammad (1897-1975), the late leader of the Lost-Found Nation of Islam in the Wilderness of North America. Upon Mr. Muhammad's passing in 1975, Benjamin decided to join the fold of followers inherited by Elijah Muhammad's son, Imam Wallace D. Mohammed (1933-2008). Imam Mohammed was responsible for sophisticatedly steering the "Nation of Islam" away from its proto-Islamic, racially-based ideology to the clear and universal teachings of "Al-Islam" as they are given in the Muslim Sacred Book, the Qur'an.

In addition, Benjamin worked for the NYC Board of Education from 1978 through 1992 teaching African American History and Comparative Religions courses which captivated students (and fellow staff members) at New York City's West Side Alternative High School.

Between 1985 and present, Benjamin Bilal penned four (4) stage plays, all of which dealt with the important subjects of ethnic pride, interfaith diversity and human cooperation. They are "REMAKE THE WORLD - Reconstruct the Family Life," "The Evolution Of A Community," "It's Wake Up Time!" and the current runaway hit stage production of "'BROTHER IMAM' - The Life, Leadership & Legacy of Wallace D. Mohammed [son of Elijah Muhammad]" respectively. He has penned 3 books thus far: NuNETICS - Insights Into Fitrah-based Meanings Of Arabic Letters, The 'N' Word—Insights Into the Bastardization of Base Meanings In the English Letter System, and Back To the Fitrah. Inquiries into his writings should be forwarded to nunetics2@gmail.com.

Benjamin Bilal is currently the C.E.O. of True Human Empowerment Media, LLC. (T.H.E.M.), an organization designed to promote human-based values which serve to improve upon inter-personal, inter-ethnic, and inter-religious relationships. He and his wife of 14 years, Kareema Medina Bilal (also a motivational speaker), are presently on a joint tour, crisscrossing the country on a lecture circuit designed to spread both a "new paradigm for Qur'anic-based thinking" among Muslims (Benjamin's forte) and "Health & Relationships" (Kareema's expertise). Kareema can be reached by e-mailing her at: truehumanhealing@gmail.com.

Benjamin and Kareema have co-hosted weekly national teleconferences from 2010 until 2013. Benjamin went on to host a weekly study group called the "Qur'an Linguistic Study Course" which ran from 2014 to 2017. This teleconference call has since segued into a tuition-based weekly international webinar called the "UniverCity Online Learning Course" which is based on his NuNetics book.
